

RESIDENCY IN THE UAE

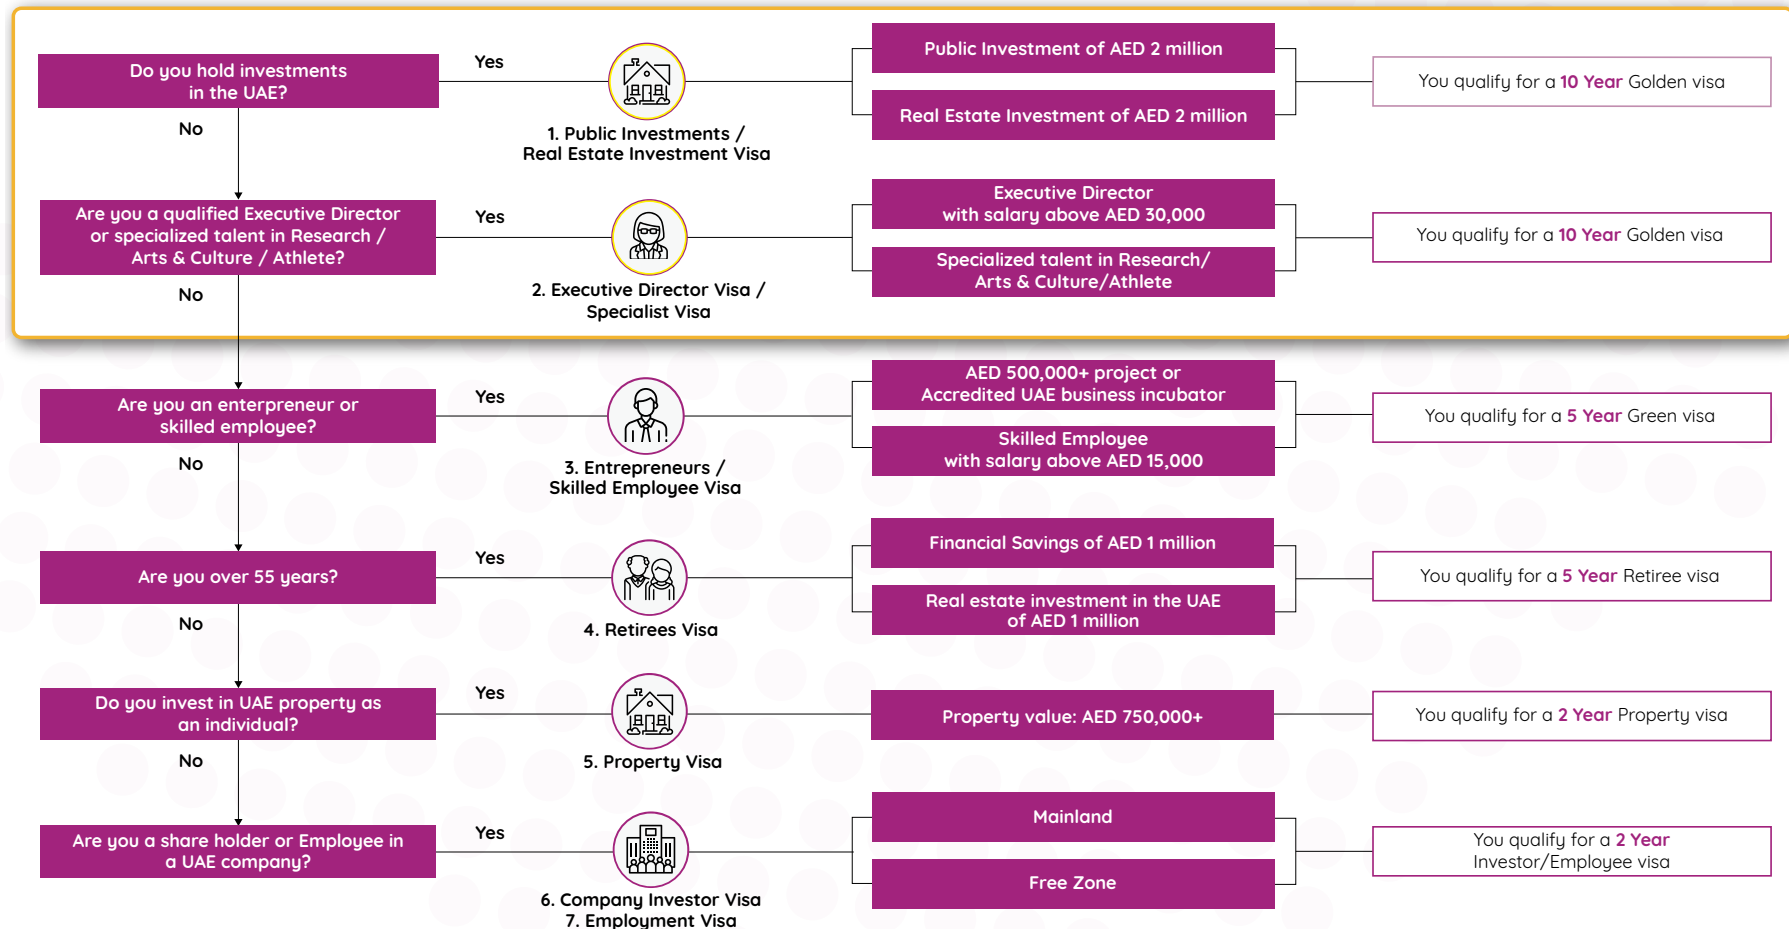

SPRING 2024

UAE Residency Options at a Glance

Over the past decade the UAE has become one of the most popular jurisdictions worldwide for the relocation of individuals. With no taxes applied on individuals, straight forward administrative requirements and low processing costs, coupled with excellent accessibility, high-quality of life, political stability and sunny weather year-round, the UAE is indeed a very attractive proposal as a residency jurisdiction. The UAE's position has further been reinforced by the ongoing tax backlash in other relocation hubs – e.g. amended UK tax regimes pertaining to “non-doms”, increased costs of the lump-sum tax system in Switzerland – as well as plans from various countries to “tighten the screw” on Europe’s tax heavens.

Following the introduction of long-term visa options, the present fact sheet – and its illustrative chart below – help you navigate the different visa options available in the UAE.

Residency in the UAE

What's new in 2022?

The UAE has overhauled its UAE's immigration framework once again, with the formal introduction of a Green card visa system (Validity: 5 & 10 years) and a Permanent Residency for investors, entrepreneurs, specialized talents and researchers.

The new measures have been introduced to enhance the competitiveness and flexibility of the UAE labour market, facilitate sector growth, spur knowledge transfer and skills development, and create greater stability and security for residents.

The UAE Government also announced it would allow people who have lost their jobs to remain in the country for up to 180 days from the earlier 30 days.

UAE also launched a 5 year five-year multi-entry tourist visas. The five-year multi-entry visas allow visitors to enter the UAE several times over a calendar year or stay for 90 days at a time with the ability to extend the visa for an additional 90 days.

Taxation

A residence permit holder is not subject to income tax and wealth tax in the UAE.

He/she may claim additional tax relief through UAE's vast network of double tax treaties. A residence permit allows its holder to reside anywhere in the UAE and authorizes him/her to enter and exit the country an unlimited amount of times.

Why the UAE?

- Total exemption from income tax and wealth tax for individuals
- No quotas on the number of issued residence permits
- No requirement to obtain a fiscal quitus from the foreign country
- No minimum requirement regarding the time spent annually in the jurisdiction¹
- Competitive costs for issuance and renewal of the residence permit
- Presence of internationally recognized financial, legal and tax services providers
- Primary hub and platform to access international business
- Political stability
- Yearly sunny climate

What are the other specific regulatory changes related to visas?

- Extension of business trip permits from three months to six months
- Sponsorship of parents under the visa of direct family members
- One-year residency extension for humanitarian cases
- Extension of children's age limit on parents' residency from 18 to 25 years
- Extension of grace period upon job loss or retirement to 90 to 180 days

1. Other than visiting the UAE at least once every six months; however, in order to obtain a tax residence certificate, an applicant must in principle reside in the UAE for at least 180 days in the past year. Exemptions – based on subjective “close ties to the country” criteria are available.
